Any decision by the committee shall not be invalid because of the subsequent discovery of an interest which should have been declared. Any committee member so conflicted shall vacate his or her office, either for a period or permanently, if requested to do so by the remaining members of the committee. Any act done in good faith by a committee member, whether or not his or her office is vacated under the terms of this rule shall be valid unless prior to the doing of such act written notice has been served on the committee and an entry has been made in the committee's minute book stating that such committee member has ceased to be a member of the committee.

Committee members who are tenants of property owned or managed by the Co-operative shall be deemed not to have an interest in any decision affecting all or a substantial group of tenants.

65. The example provided in the rule immediately above is for the purpose of illustrating the intention of these rules to ensure that interests and conflicts of interest are declared and avoided and are not exclusive of other matters which may create a conflict of interest that needs to be declared and avoided.

PROCEEDINGS OF COMMITTEE

66. The committee shall meet at least four times in every calendar year at such times and places as the committee shall decide. Seven clear days' notice of the date and place of such meetings shall be given in writing or by email or other electronic means acceptable to committee members and noted in the committee's minutes and which creates a record of sending by the secretary to all committee members.
67. Special meetings of the committee may be called either by the secretary, or by a notice in writing given to the secretary by the chair of the committee, or by two committee members, specifying the business to be transacted at the special committee meeting. The secretary shall communicate every such notice to all committee members and persons co-opted to the committee as soon as possible after receipt. The special meeting shall be held at the ordinary place for meetings of the committee or such other place as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting. The special meeting shall be held not earlier than three clear days and not later than ten clear days after the receipt by the secretary of the notice requesting it. If the secretary fails to convene the special meeting as required by this rule, the chair of the committee, or the two committee members who have given the notice in writing, may call the meeting. No other business shall be done at the meeting other than the business named in the notice convening the special committee meeting.

QUORUM FOR COMMITTEE MEETINGS

68. No business shall be transacted at committee meeting unless a quorum of members is present either in person or by telephone, video conferencing or by other communications equipment such that the person can hear, comment and vote on proceedings at the time the meeting proceeds to business. The quorum of the committee shall be one-third of its total number subject to a minimum of three.
69. Notwithstanding any vacancies on the committee, the remaining committee members may continue to act. If at any time the number of committee members falls below the number necessary for a quorum, the remaining committee members may act as the committee for a maximum period of six months. If, after this six month period has expired, the committee has not appointed committee members to make up their number to that which is necessary for a quorum, the only power which the committee may exercise shall be to convene a general meeting of the Co-operative to elect, in accordance with these rules, such number of committee members as is required to bring the number of members of the committee to the number necessary to comply with the quorum required for Committee Meetings.

SPECIAL MANAGER PROVISIONS

70. If the general meeting referred to in the preceding clause is unable to elect such committee members because there are an insufficient number of members willing to take responsibility for the democratic governance of the Co-operative, the general meeting shall appoint a special manager to manage the Co-operative's business in the absence of a duly elected committee. The special manager shall not be a member of the Co-operative but shall be either a co-opted member of the Co-operative's committee, an employee, a consultant, or a body corporate. The special manager may exercise all the powers of the committee under these rules that are necessary for the continuing day to day management of the Co-operative's established business but shall not have the power to expand the scope or nature of the Co-operative's business activities. The special manager shall, as soon as may be practicable after appointment, call a general meeting to present to the members proposals for rejuvenation and re-establishment of the Co-operative's democratic governance. If such proposals are not accepted by the Co-operative, the special manager shall put to the members at the same or subsequent general meeting to be held within six months proposals for the amalgamation, transfer of engagements, or dissolution of the Co-operative under the provisions set out in these rules. A special manager appointed under this rule may be removed by resolution of a general meeting called to elect a committee with sufficient members to form the required quorum for Committee meetings as required by these rules.

POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE

71. The business of the Co-operative shall be conducted by the committee which may exercise all such powers as may be exercised by the Co-operative in accordance with its objects and these rules and are not by these rules or by statute required to be exercised by the Co-operative in general meeting. The committee shall in all things act for and in the name of the Co-operative. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred on the committee by these rules, the committee may exercise the following powers to:

72. A receiver appointed by a mortgagee may exercise such powers of the committee as s/he deems to be necessary to carry out his/her duties.

DELEGATION OF POWERS BY THE COMMITTEE

73. The committee may delegate any of its powers to sub-committees consisting of such committee members and other persons as it thinks fit under written terms of reference. Any sub-committee shall, in carrying out the powers entrusted to it, conform to the written instructions given to it by the committee and shall be governed by the provisions in these rules for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the committee or by any terms of reference or standing orders for the sub-committee imposed by the committee. Members of any sub-committee set-up under these rules shall be bound by the same obligations as set out in provisions titled 'Avoidance and Declaration of Conflicts of Interest' in these rules.

74. The committee may also delegate such of its powers as may be necessary or expedient to managing agents appointed under the rule titled 'Powers of the Committee' rule in these rules or the rule titled 'Officers' in these rules.
75. All acts done in good faith by any meetings of the committee or of any sub-committee shall, notwithstanding that it shall be afterwards discovered that there was any defect in the appointment of any committee member or committee members or that any one or more of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every committee member had been duly appointed and was duly qualified to serve.
76. A resolution in writing signed by all committee members or by all members of a sub-committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the committee or sub-committee duly called and constituted.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS

77. The responsibility of all committee members, whether elected or co-opted, is to act only and at all times in the best interests of the Co-operative and not for personal benefit or gain or on behalf of any constituency or special or partisan interest group. Without prejudice to this general responsibility each and every committee member shall:
 - (a) abide by the Code of Conduct for committee members as agreed from time to time by the Co-operative;

Any committee member who fails to sign the statement of committee member's responsibilities within one month of being required to do so shall cease to be a member of the committee.

OFFICERS

78. In addition to the three Co-operative officers of chair, secretary and treasurer, the Co-operative shall have such other officers as the committee may from time to time determine. Officers shall be appointed and may be removed by the committee to carry out such tasks and fulfil such functions as the committee shall from time to time determine. The Co-operative officers and other officers appointed by the committee shall, if they are members of the Co-operative, not receive any remuneration for carrying out the duties of their office. Officers who are employees of the Co-operative but not members shall receive such remuneration [if any] under their contracts of employment as the committee shall determine is fair and reasonable.
79. The Co-operative officers and other officers, if any, shall act under the supervision control and direction of the committee and shall discharge their powers and responsibilities in accordance with these rules and with such regulations, standing orders, written terms of reference, policies and procedures as may be established from time to time by the Co-operative which are consistent with these rules.
80. The secretary shall ensure that:

- (f) all returns required to be made to the Registrar are sent

81. The Co-operative officers and any other officer of the Co-operative shall produce or give up all books, papers, documents and records of the Co-operative whenever required to do so by resolution of the committee or the Co-operative in general meeting.

SECURITY BY OFFICERS AND INDEMNITY

82. The committee shall require every officer or employee having receipt or charge of money to provide to the Co-operative an assurance of their honesty and integrity. This shall be done by the officer or employee becoming either bound with or without a surety as the committee may determine in a bond according to one of the forms set out in Schedule 1 of the Act or to give the security of a society or insurer of repute in such sum as the committee shall direct, commonly called 'fidelity guarantee insurance'. Every officer having receipt or charge of money shall, when required to do so by the committee or Co-operative in general meeting, give a just and true account of all monies received by him or her on account of the Co-operative and shall, as and when required to do so, pay all sums due from him or her to the Co-operative.

83. Every officer shall be indemnified by the Co-operative against all costs, losses and expenses which he or she may reasonably incur in the discharge of his or her duties including travelling and other out of pocket expenses and the amount for which such indemnity is provided shall immediately attach as a charge on the property of the Co-operative.
84. No officer shall be liable for any loss happening to the Co-operative through the execution of the duties of his or her office unless the loss is the consequence of his/her own dishonesty or gross negligence.

PAYMENTS TO OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE

85. The Co-operative shall not remunerate any member of the Co-operative or any member of any sub-committee established by the Co-operative in respect of service as a member of any such sub-committee or as an officer. This rule shall not prevent the reimbursement of expenses properly incurred by any person on behalf of the Co-operative.

BORROWING

86. The Co-operative shall have the power to borrow money for the purpose of the Co-operative provided that at the time of borrowing the sum of the amount remaining undischarged of monies previously borrowed and the amount of the proposed borrowing shall not exceed £20,000,000 (twenty million pounds) and that for this purpose:
 - (a) the amount remaining undischarged of any deferred-interest or index-linked monies previously borrowed by the Co-operative or on any deep discounted security shall be deemed to be the amount required to repay such borrowing in full if such borrowing became repayable at the time of the proposed borrowing; and
 - (b) the amount of any proposed borrowing intended to be on index-linked or on any deep discounted security shall be deemed to be the proceeds of such proposed borrowing receivable by the Co-operative at the time of the proposed borrowing
87. The rate of interest payable at the time terms of borrowing are agreed on any money borrowed shall not exceed the rate of interest which, in the opinion of the committee, having taken advice from a suitably qualified independent financial advisor, is reasonable having regard to the terms of the loan. The committee may delegate the determination of the said interest rate within specified limits to an officer, committee member or to a sub-committee.
88. Where the Co-operative intends to borrow monies on a deferred interest, index linked, fixed interest rate arrangement, interest rate cap or any basis other than on standard repayment terms the committee shall take advice from a suitably qualified independent financial advisor to ensure that the terms and conditions of the loan are prudent and reasonable, and from its auditors to ensure that the borrowing limit in these rules will not be exceeded.

89. The Co-operative shall not receive money on deposit. For the avoidance of doubt the Co-operative shall not engage in any activity by virtue of any of these rules that would require a permission from the Financial Conduct Authority (or any body that succeeds its functions) to carry on that activity without first having applied for and obtained such permission.
90. The Co-operative may receive donations towards the work of the Co-operative from any lawful source which the Committee considers does not compromise the Co-operative's ethical commitment to the Co-operative Principles and Values.

INVESTMENT

91. The funds of or monies borrowed by the Co-operative may, to the extent permitted by the law for the time being in force, be invested (and not otherwise):
- (a) in any manner expressly authorised by the Act;
 - (b) in any investments covered by Parts I, II and III of the First Schedule to the Trustee Investments Act 1961 or in stocks or shares or debentures of any body corporate but subject in the case of any investments under paragraphs 1 and 3 of Part III or of any body incorporated overseas to the taking of advice in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the Trustee Investments Act 1961;
 - (c) in shares, loan stock or on the security of any co-operative or community benefit society or credit union registered under the Act;
 - (d) in any freehold, or leasehold property whatsoever in the United Kingdom.
92. The Co-operative may, to the extent permitted by the law for the time being in force, delegate in writing to a suitable person the exercise of the management or investment of the property for the time being forming part of the property of the Co-operative. A suitable person shall be a person whom the Co-operative reasonably believes to be qualified by ability and experience in the matters delegated, and who is an exempted person for the purposes of Part I of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as amended or re-enacted from time to time.
93. The Co-operative may appoint any member or members to vote on its behalf at meetings of any other body corporate in which the Co-operative has invested any part of its funds.

BAN ON PAYMENTS OF PROFIT TO MEMBERS

94. No portion of the income or the property of the Co-operative shall be transferred either directly or indirectly by way of bonus or otherwise by way of profit, to members of the Co-operative except in so far as the tenancy or lease may provide upon surrender to the Co-operative for payments to be made to the member.

SURPLUSES

95. The Co-operative may apply any surpluses towards furthering the objects of the Co-operative.
96. A general meeting may set aside any part of the surpluses arising in any year to be donated or loaned for any purposes determined by the members in general meeting.
97. Any surpluses not applied or set aside shall be carried forward.

AUDIT

98. The Co-operative, if required to do so by law, shall appoint in each financial year an auditor to whom the accounts of the Co-operative for that year shall be submitted for audit as required by the Act. They must be qualified as provided by Section 91 of the Act. The auditor shall have all such rights in relation to notice of and audience at general meetings, access to books, the supply of information and otherwise as are provided by the Act. The first appointment of an auditor shall be made within three months of the registration of the Co-operative and shall be made by the committee if no general meeting of the Co-operative is held within that time. Thereafter, every appointment of an auditor shall be made by resolution of the Co-operative at a general meeting.
99. In accordance with section 84 of the 2014 Act, the Co-operative shall be exempt from the obligation to appoint a qualified auditor if during the preceding financial year it met such criteria regarding low levels of income and/or expenditure or other factors as to qualify for statutory exemption from the need to appoint qualified auditors.
100. The members of the Co-operative shall, in general meeting, vote every year to allow the Co-operative to apply any audit exemption permitted by statute. Such a resolution shall not be considered to have been passed if more than twenty per cent of the total number of votes cast are against the resolution and if more than ten per cent of the members of the Co-operative cast their votes against the resolution.
101. If lay auditors are appointed to carry out an audit they shall be chosen by the Committee from the general membership and/or others.
102. If the membership vote for unaudited accounts and these are permitted by statute, the Co-operative's income/expenditure ledger shall be scrutinised by the secretary and committee members only and signed, as a true record, by the secretary and two committee members or such other number as may be required by legislation. An income/expenditure report will be prepared to present to the Co-operative's members at each annual general meeting.
103. The following persons are prohibited from appointment as auditor of the Co-operative:
 - (a) a member, officer or employee of the Co-operative;

 - (ii) a partner of or a member of the person's family;

- (iii) an employer;
- (iv) a business partner.

104. An auditor appointed to audit the accounts and balance sheet of the Co-operative for the previous financial year shall be re-appointed as auditor of the Co-operative for the current year of account, whether or not any resolution expressly re-appointing the auditor has been passed; unless:
- (a) A general meeting has appointed someone else to act or has resolved that the auditor cannot act; or
 - (b) the auditor has given to the Co-operative notice in writing that the auditor is unwilling to be re-appointed; or
 - (c) the auditor is not a qualified auditor or is prohibited from appointment as auditor of the Co-operative; or
 - (d) the auditor has ceased to act as auditor of the Co-operative by reason of incapacity; or
 - (e) if the Co-operative's committee has given notice in writing to the auditor of its intention to tender the audit in order to comply with guidance on audit best practice; or provided that a retiring auditor shall not be automatically re-appointed if notice of an intended resolution to appoint another person in that auditor's place has been given in accordance with this rule and the resolution cannot be proceeded with because of the death or incapacity of that other person or because that other person is not a qualified auditor or is prohibited from appointment as auditor.

105. A resolution at a general meeting of the Co-operative appointing another person as auditor in place of a retiring auditor or providing expressly that a retiring auditor shall not be re-appointed shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Co-operative not less than 28 clear days before the meeting at which it is to be moved. On receipt by the Co-operative of notice of such an intended resolution the Co-operative shall immediately send a copy of the notice to the retiring auditor. If it is practical to do so the Co-operative shall give notice to its members of the intended resolution at the same time and in the same manner as it gives notice in accordance with these rules of the meeting at which the resolution is to be moved. Where the retiring auditor makes any representations in writing to the Co-operative with respect to the intended resolution or notifies the Co-operative that s/he intends to make such representations, the Co-operative shall notify the members accordingly as required by the Act.

ACCOUNTS

106. The Co-operative shall keep proper books and other records of account with respect to all its financial transactions and to its assets and liabilities in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and shall establish and maintain a satisfactory system of control of its accounting records, its cash holdings and all its receipts and payments.

107. Unless the Co-operative is entitled to and has applied the exemption to appoint a qualified auditor the committee shall ensure that the Co-operative's accounts and balance sheet are submitted for audit to the Co-operative's auditor and the auditor shall in accordance with the requirements of the Act make a report to the Co-operative on the accounts examined by the auditor and on the revenue account or accounts and the balance sheet for the year of account in respect of which the auditor has been appointed.

ANNUAL RETURNS

108. Every year not later than 7 (seven) months after the Co-operative's financial year end the secretary shall send to the Registrar in the form prescribed the Co-operative's annual return relating to its affairs for the period required by the Act together with:
- (a) a copy of the report of the auditor (if any) on the Co-operative's accounts for the period included in the return; and

109. The Co-operative shall supply free of charge to every member or person interested in the funds of the Co-operative on application a copy of the latest annual return of the Co-operative together with a copy of the accounts and balance sheet and the report of the auditor (if any) contained in the return and on the accounts and balance sheet.
110. The Co-operative shall keep a copy of the latest balance sheet for the time being and auditor's report (if any) available for inspection by members at its registered office.

INSPECTION OF BOOKS

111. Any member or person having an interest in the funds of the Co-operative shall be allowed to inspect his/her own account and the books containing the names of the members, including the details contained in the duplicate register of members between the hours of 9.30am and 5.30pm on any day excepting Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holidays or at any other place where the same records are kept, subject to this right of inspection being carried out in accordance with the arrangements for inspection of records as may be made from time to time by the Co-operative in general meeting. If the member or person wishing to carry out such an inspection is reasonably unable to do so between the times stated above, the Co-operative shall make alternative arrangements for the inspection if it is reasonably practical to do so.

MINUTES AND RECORDS

112. Minutes of every general meeting and of every committee meeting and of every sub-committee shall be kept and presented for approval as an accurate record at the next respective meeting and signed by the chair of the meeting at which they are presented and approved. All minutes signed as an accurate record shall, subject to any amendments which may be recorded in the following meeting, be conclusive evidence of any facts stated in the minutes or decisions made at the meeting the minutes record.

113. The Co-operative shall keep at its registered office a register of members in which the secretary shall enter or cause to be entered the following particulars;
- (a) the names and addresses of the members;

114. The Co-operative shall also keep at its registered office a duplicate register of members in which the secretary shall enter all the particulars in the original register of members omitting those details marked with an * [asterisk] set out in the rule immediately above this rule.
115. The inclusion or omission of the name of any person in or from the register of members shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be conclusive evidence that such person is or is not a member of the Co-operative.
116. The registered name of the Co-operative shall be kept painted or fixed in a conspicuous position in an easily legible form on the outside of every office or place in which the business of the Co-operative is carried on, and the registered name of the Co-operative shall be engraved in legible characters on its seal, and shall be mentioned in all business letters of the Co-operative, notices, advertisements, electronic communications and other official publications of the Co-operative and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Co-operative and in all bills, invoices, receipts and letters of credit of the Co-operative.

SEAL

117. If the Co-operative has a seal it shall be kept in the custody of the secretary and used only by the authority of the Co-operative. Sealing shall be attested by the signatures of the two committee members or the secretary and one committee member. If the Co-operative does not have a seal, a document which would have previously required to be sealed should be signed by two committee members or a committee member and the secretary and accompanied by a written statement that the document has been executed by the Co-operative as if under common seal.

DISPUTES

118. Any dispute concerning matters governed by these rules between a member, or any person aggrieved who has not for more than six months ceased to be a member, and the Co-operative or an officer thereof shall be considered in accordance with the Co-operative's disputes procedure agreed from time to time by the Co-operative in General Meeting. The secretary shall, on request, provide any member or person interested in the Co-operative with a copy of the Co-operative's current dispute procedure. Provided that any internal disputes procedure established by the Co-operative has been exhausted without the dispute being resolved, either party may request the dispute to be submitted to the County Court [or to the Sheriff's Court, if the Co-operative's registered office is in Scotland] whose decision shall be binding and conclusive, and application for the enforcement thereof may be made by either party to the County Court or to the Sheriff's Court, if the Co-operative's registered office is in Scotland.

119. The costs of referring the dispute to the County Court [or the Sheriff's Court, if the Co-operative's registered office is in Scotland] shall be borne as the County Court or the Sheriff's Court directs.

AMENDMENT OF RULES

123. Any rule of the Co-operative contained in these rules may be rescinded or amended or a new rule may be made by a resolution carried by two-thirds of the votes given on the resolution to amend these rules at any general meeting of which notice has been given specifying the intention to propose such a rescission, amendment or new rule.
124. Application for the registration of every amendment of rules shall be made to the Registrar in the manner and form required by the Act as soon as practical after the general meeting at which the decision to rescind or amend or make a new rule has been taken. Once an amendment has been registered, a copy of it shall be issued to every member and supplied with every copy of the rules issued after the amendment of rules has been registered. No amendment of rules is valid until registered by the Registrar. When submitting rule amendments for registration the secretary may at his/her sole discretion accept any textual alterations to the wording of the amendment which do not change the substance or effect of the amendment that may be required or suggested by the Registrar without reference back to a further general meeting of the Co-operative.

OPTION: Choose this option if the co-operative is registered or intends to register as a Registered Provider with the Homes & Communities Agency or as a Registered Social Landlord with the Welsh Government (or any statutory successor carrying out similar regulatory or supervisory functions).

125. Any amendment of these rules that alters the Co-operative's objects, or makes provision about the distribution of assets to members, or amends the dissolution terms, shall be effective with the prior consent of the Regulator where such consent is required under relevant legislation; or, where such consent is not required, the Co-operative has obtained appropriate independent advice that the proposed changes do not conflict with legislative registration requirements.
126. Any other amendment to these rules shall be notified to the Regulator as required by the Regulator from time to time.

AMALGAMATION AND TRANSFER OF ENGAGEMENTS

127. The Co-operative may, by special resolution passed at a general meeting in the manner prescribed in the Act, amalgamate with or transfer its engagements to any other co-operative or community benefit society that has similar objects and is registered under the Act.

CO-OPERATIVE PRINCIPLES

Co-operative Principles as defined by resolution of the Centennial Congress of the International Co-operative Alliance on 23 September 1995.

Definition

A co-operative is an autonomous association of persons united voluntarily to meet their common economic, social, and cultural needs and aspirations through a jointly-owned and democratically controlled enterprise.

Values

Co-operatives are based on the values of self-help, self-responsibility, democracy, equality, equity, and solidarity. In the tradition of their founders, co-operative members believe in the ethical values of honesty, openness, social responsibility, and caring for others.

Principles

The co-operative principles are guidelines by which co-operatives put their values into practice.

- [1] Voluntary and Open Membership: Co-operatives are voluntary organisations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political, or religious discrimination.
- [2] Democratic Member Control: Co-operatives are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Women and men serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary co-operatives members have equal voting rights [one member, one vote] and co-operatives at other levels are also organised in a democratic manner.
- [3] Member Economic Participation: Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. At least part of that capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. Members usually receive limited compensation, if any, on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any of the following purposes: developing their co-operative, possibility by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible; benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and supporting other activities approved by the membership.
- [4] Autonomy and Independence: Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensures democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

- [5] Education, Training and Information: Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers, and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operatives. They inform the general public - particularly young people and opinion leaders - about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

- [6] Co-operation among Co-operatives: Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional, and international structures.

- [7] Concern for Community: Co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies approved by their members.
